

Parts marked with this sign are supplied with high voltage exceeding 260V.

Parts marked with this sign have special characteristics important for microwave leakage. When replacing any of those parts use only manufacturers specified parts.